

GUINEA-BISSAU

This map illustrates the geographical features and administrative divisions of Guinea-Bissau. The country is divided into several regions: Cachéu, Oio, Bafatá, Quinara, Tombali, and Bissau. Major rivers include the Casamance, Rio Cacheu, Rio Géba, Rio Mansa, Rio Grande de Cubá, Rio Corubal, Rio Balanta, Rio Tambali, Rio Cache, and Rio Kounoussi. The map also shows numerous towns and villages. A legend in the bottom right corner provides symbols for national and regional capitals, towns, roads, and airports. An inset map shows the location of Guinea-Bissau relative to the world map.

Map No. 4063 UNITED NATIONS
July 1998

Department of Public Information
Cartographic Section